Revised 10/2018

Overview

The Less Commonly Taught Language Center (LCTL) at the University of Pittsburgh has provided language instruction in LCTL languages for decades with most of the current languages being offered continuously for 10 years or more. Students taking a LCTL language learn to speak, listen, read, and write in that language just as students in commonly taught languages do. Our students stand out as individuals with a rare skill (at least for an American context), which may put them at an advantage for future job opportunities. This minor synergizes with University Center for International Studies (UCIS) certificates, acting as a steppingstone for students working toward those.
